CALVERT COUNTY

Take a trip that's just a short drive from Annapolis, Baltimore or Washington, D.C. to Calvert County where time really does move a bit more slowly.

See the majestic Calvert Cliffs with their treasure of prehistoric fossils. Escape to the beach at Flag Ponds Nature Park. Experience Battle Creek Cypress Swamp Sanctuary, America's northernmost stand of bald cypress trees. Take a glimpse at turn-of-the-century life at the Chesapeake Beach Railway and Bayside History Museums. Explore heritage and agricultural history at Jefferson Patterson Park and Museum.

Ride the Trolley or cruise around Solomons Island on a sightseeing boat. Visit the Calvert Marine Museum to tour the J. C. Lore Oyster House, climb into Drum Point Lighthouse or take a shuttle to Cove Point Lighthouse. Meander through a sculpture garden at Annmarie Garden. Picnic at Chesapeake Beach, North Beach or Breezy Point on the Chesapeake Bay.

Easy to find, but hard to leave- choose Calvert for an unforgettable taste of the Chesapeake Bay lifestyle.
